

If you agonize about the horrors of this society, and that there's no way out... this speech will reveal why those outrages go on and on and how they can be changed.

If you have thought that even if people could get together for revolution, that it's not possible up against the powerful repressive machinery we face... this speech will challenge you.

If you have hungered for fundamental change, but did not know where to begin... this speech will give you the map you need and the way to connect.

Watch this speech from Bob Avakian, it opens the possibility of revolution.

Bob Avakian is the leader of the revolution who has developed a new synthesis of communism aimed at the emancipation of humanity.
