

Luis Gongora

murdered by police in San Francisco

April 7, 2016

On behalf of the family of Luis Demetrio Gongora Pat, Laura Guzman is sharing the only picture his San Francisco family has in possession. Luis was born in Teabo, Yucatan on 4/25/1970 - he would have turned 46 in a couple of weeks. A Yucatec Mayan, he is survived by his brothers Jose and Carlos Gongora Pat and his cousin Luis Pot Pat, his only family members in the United States, and his spouse, three grown children and his elderly parents, all in Yucatan, Mexico. The Gongora Pat family extends their gratitude to the outpour of love and support for Luis after his murder last Thursday. Asociacion MAYAB and MNRC are assisting family members to connect with appropriate services, and they will be ready to join community efforts after they receive appropriate legal counsel.
