Looking for truth in a world of unjust war, censorship, patriotic hype and lies?

Experience the Unique Perspective of the REVOLUTIONARY WORKER

To change the world, we have to know the world.

We need the truth and we need the revolutionary press.

The Revolutionary Worker is fresh air to breathe. It is a lifeline to the reality beyond the dog-eat-dog. It brings you the perspective of those fighting for a new revolutionary power around the world.

The Revolutionary Worker newspaper is the voice of the Revolutionary Communist Party, USA. And there is nothing like it.

Published weekly in English and Spanish, the RW is packed with news that the powerful don't want you to know.

In this time of hype and war, the RW cuts through the lies and patriotic ranting. It reveals why the war-makers really have launched their crusade on the world. It has been part of building the powerful opposition to unjust war—and it is a source of news on this resistance worldwide.

Come here every week, to dig deep into the issues of our world—hidden stories, groundbreaking analysis, and sharp exposures.

Here you get eyewitness reports from the Maoist guerrilla zones of Nepal, the class struggle in Mexico, the intifada of Palestine. And special features like the amazing series on the science of evolution.

This is where artists, activists and intellectuals lay it out in the "RW Interviews."

The RW cuts up the depressing lie that "nothing but capitalism is possible." It opens the door to a fresh perspective on the communist revolution.

The RW features the writings of RCP Chairman Bob Avakian—discussing how things would be different in a revolutionary society, dealing with major questions of philosophy and revolutionary strategy, and training a new generation to be leaders of a future society.

This is where you hear the forbidden voices of the rebel and the outcast. The RW takes you to the ghettos and barrios of the inner cities, to the villages and shantytowns of the third world, wherever forces are gathering to fight for change and justice. It is on the frontlines where women are fighting to break the chains of tradition and superstition.

This paper is a connector—a subterranean network of political consciousness. It reaches street kids and PhDs, it moves from cell to cell in the prisons, it schools a new generation of activists and revolutionary leaders. It is a crucial part of a great dialogue on how to change the world, and at the same time, it is part of a down-to-earth struggle for a radically different planet.
