

About PRLF: Prisoners Revolutionary Literature Fund (PRLF) is an educational literature fund that fills requests from U.S. prisoners for revolutionary literature.

2.4 million people in the U.S. are imprisoned, the highest per capita rate in the world. One in nine black men between 20 and 34 are imprisoned - a higher rate than in apartheid South Africa. One-third of the women in prison in the world are in prison in the U.S. Many super-max prisons here openly violate international standards of torture.

In the face of all this, many prisoners, who society calls the "worst of the worst" or "incorrigible," are going through a transformation, changing how they understand the world and their role in it, because of "Basics, from the talks and writings of Bob Avakian", Revolution newspaper (www.revcom.us) and other revolutionary literature sent to them by PRLF.

Letters from prisoners and more information about PRLF are at PRLF.org.

Contact PRLF (773) 960-6952; contact@PRLF.org

PRLF is a project of the International Humanities Center, (<https://ihcenter.org/projects/prlf>) a non-profit public charity, exempt from federal income tax under section 501 c of the IRS code.

Artwork from a young person at Occupy Wall Street

Prisoners Revolutionary Literature Fund

About PRLF: Prisoners Revolutionary Literature Fund (PRLF) is an educational literature fund that fills requests from U.S. prisoners for revolutionary literature.

2.4 million people in the U.S. are imprisoned, the highest per capita rate in the world. One in nine black men between 20 and 34 are imprisoned - a higher rate than in apartheid South Africa. One-third of the women in prison in the world are in prison in the U.S. Many super-max prisons here openly violate international standards of torture.

In the face of all this, many prisoners, who society calls the "worst of the worst" or "incorrigible," are going through a transformation, changing how they understand the world and their role in it, because of "Basics, from the talks and writings of Bob Avakian", Revolution newspaper (revcom.us) and other revolutionary literature sent to them by PRLF.

Letters from prisoners and more information about PRLF are at PRLF.org

Contact PRLF (773) 960-6952; contact@PRLF.org

PRLF is a project of the International Humanities Center, (<https://ihcenter.org/projects/prlf>) a non-profit public charity, exempt from federal income tax under section 501 c of the IRS code.

Artwork from a young person at Occupy Wall Street

Prisoners Revolutionary Literature Fund

"Basics is a great starting point for people looking for answers as to why this society is the way it is..." –
A prisoner from California

"I just wanted to say that I received the book that you sent to me 'Basics'- Thank you so much!! It was very much appreciated. I read it A.S.A.P. and didn't stop til I finished it. I enjoyed its content. I will read it again and again. Write out of it, memorize it, study it some more and spread it's message...Thank you once again." –
A prisoner from California

"Basics is a great starting point for people looking for answers as to why this society is the way it is..." –
A prisoner from California

"I just wanted to say that I received the book that you sent to me 'Basics'- Thank you so much!! It was very much appreciated. I read it A.S.A.P. and didn't stop til I finished it. I enjoyed its content. I will read it again and again. Write out of it, memorize it, study it some more and spread it's message...Thank you once again." –
A prisoner from California

As part of my gift to you, a copy of this same book Basics was sent to a prisoner through the Prisoners Revolutionary Literature Fund (PRLF.org), a non-profit 501c educational literature fund.

As part of my gift to you, a copy of this same book Basics was sent to a prisoner through the Prisoners Revolutionary Literature Fund (PRLF.org), a non-profit 501c educational literature fund.