50 Years After King's Assassination and Urban Uprisings Against the Oppression of Black People

NOW,
MORE THAN EVER,
WE NEED REVOLUTION!

After the April 4, 1968 assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., Black people rose up in rebellion in over 120 cities. Above: A crowd in Newark, New Jersey, April 6, 1968. Fifty years later, Black people still face racist police terror and vicious oppression. Right: Righteous protest against the murder of Stephon Clark, an unarmed young Black man shot six times in the back by Sacramento police on March 18.
