REVOLUTION AND RELIGION

The Fight for Emancipation and the Role of Religion

A Dialogue Between

CORNEL WEST
& BOB AVAKIAN

On Nov 15, 2014, at the Riverside Church in NYC 1900 people witnessed a historic dialogue between Cornel West and Bob Avakian infused with the fire and passion to bring an end to all forms of oppression. They cut to the bone on the outrages of today's world & the need for radical change. It was a dialogue of transgression & convergence... a challenge to people to discard the mental traps & allures of this system... a stirring model of struggle & unity... a call to Stand Up & Act.

on a question of great importance in today's world*

Bob Avakian is the Chairman of the Revolutionary Communist Party, USA. Bob Avakian (BA) came alive as a revolutionary in the 1960s. Since then he has given his heart and knowledge to serving the cause of revolution and the emancipation of humanity, and has consistently taken responsibility for leading the revolutionary movement – theoretically and practically. He is an innovative and critical thinker who has brought forward a new synthesis of communism. His extensive and wide-ranging body of work includes writings and commentary on revolutionary strategy, philosophy, ethics, science, basketball, music, and religion, including the book Away with All Gods! Unchaining the Mind and Radically Changing the World. For more, go to revcom.us.

Cornel West is widely recognized as one of the most important and provocative public intellectuals of our time. A prolific writer and lecturer, West is Professor of Philosophy and Christian Practice at Union Theological Seminary in New York. A champion for the oppressed, West's writing, speaking and teaching draw inspiration from and weave together the Christian and Black prophetic traditions, radical democracy and jazz, R&B and hip hop. His book, Race Matters, changed the course of America's dialogue on race and justice. Cornel West's latest book, Black Prophetic Fire, has just been published. For more, go to cornelwest.com.
