

LIBYA. With the U.S. once again involving itself in militarily attacking yet another country, ask yourself:

Which country in the world, from its beginnings to the present time, has the bloodiest history of genocide, slavery, invasions, coups, installing and backing brutal regimes, bombings, massacres and mass destruction, including the use of nuclear weapons? And which government imprisons its own people and in particular its minorities at the highest rate in the world?

No good can come from U.S. imperialist intervention of any kind.

—Revolutionary Communist Party, USA

2007—Western Baghdad, Iraq, after U.S. airstrike.

1945—The U.S. dropped atomic bombs on Nagasaki (above) and Hiroshima, Japan, murdering nearly 200,000.

1863—Escaped slave, U.S.

March 16, 1968—My Lai Massacre, Vietnam. U.S. soldiers murdered 350 to 500 civilians in the village of My Lai. The U.S. war in Indochina killed over 2 million people in Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia.