

Scenes from a faith-based future:

“The Bible Taken Literally Is a Horror!”

“They attacked Midian as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they killed all the men.”

Numbers 31:7

“Then the Israelite army captured the Midianite women and children and seized their cattle and flocks and all their wealth as plunder. They burned all the towns and villages where the Midianites had lived.”

Numbers 31:9-10

“But Moses was furious with all the generals and captains who had returned from the battle.

‘Why have you let all the women live?’ he demanded. ‘These are the very ones who followed Balaam’s advice and caused the people of Israel to rebel against the LORD at Mount Peor. They are the ones who caused the plague to strike the LORD’s people. So kill all the boys and all the women who have had intercourse with a man. Only the young girls who are virgins may live; you may keep them for yourselves.’”

Numbers 31:14-18

[from the Archives of the Federal Theocratic States of America]

While walking her daughter to school, Maria Rosado was taken prisoner by Federal troops after martial law was declared for the Los Angeles area in the fall of 2013. They were both sent to the newly built Salvation Detention Center during Operation Purity, a six-month military campaign to crush riots that broke out following passage of the Spanish Suppression Act. Following scriptural policy, Federal troops killed all male Mexicans, Central Americans, and other Spanish-speaking immigrants within a 40-mile radius of Los Angeles, restoring peace and tranquility to the area. To prevent possible "mixing" with Federal troops, all female prisoners over age 14 were terminated. Maria Rosado was the last to be executed.

Her daughter was blessed and sent to a faith-based center for training to fill growing shortages in the service industry.
