Children making bricks in Pakistan earn $2.77 a day. One in six children in the world today labors, damaging their mental, physical and emotional development. Every year 22,000 children die in work-related accidents; 73 million working children are less than 10 years old. (Source: UNICEF)

No more generations of our youth, here and all around the world, whose life is over, whose fate has been sealed, who have been condemned to an early death or a life of misery and brutality, whom the system has destined for oppression and oblivion even before they are born. I say no more of that.
