How Long?

60 years ago, 1955: 14-year-old Emmett Till was brutally murdered by white racists in Money, Mississippi, for whistling at a white woman. His murderers were set free, found not guilty of any crime.

10 years ago, 2005: After Hurricane Katrina devastates New Orleans, the authorities leave Black people to die, with no food or water or herded into the Superdome like cattle. People worked together to get food and water. People trying to cross the Danziger Bridge to escape the flood are shot by police.
