

REVOLUTION AND COMMUNISM: A FOUNDATION AND STRATEGIC ORIENTATION

*A Revolution pamphlet
(reprints from Revolution newspaper)*

MAY 1, 2008

Revolution and Communism: A Foundation and Strategic Orientation consists of "Making Revolution and Emancipating Humanity" by Bob Avakian, a talk which was serialized in REVOLUTION beginning October 21, 2007, in issues 105 through 120; and "On the Possibility of Revolution," which consists of a letter from a reader raising an important question of revolutionary strategy and a response—both printed in REVOLUTION newspaper issue 102, September 23, 2007. As the title of this pamphlet implies, this provides a foundation and strategy for revolution aimed at the ultimate goal of communism.
